International Mergers in the Airlines Industry

December 5, 2013

12:00pm EST | 18.00 CET

The airlines industry has witnessed significant consolidation over the past decade. Airline mergers have been subjected to intense scrutiny from antitrust regulators around the world, including most recently in the litigated AMR / US Airways transaction in the U.S. Our international panel of experts will discuss critical issues facing airline mergers, including theories of competitive harm in key jurisdictions, suitable remedies, and the prospects for future mergers.
