You are invited to attend an Institute of Corporate Directors Ontario Chapter Breakfast session on Tuesday, October 16th. Leading experts on governance will share their expertise in a panel discussion titled:

Climate Change: Risks and Opportunities

"...companies need to look further than their own emissions and energy use to understand their exposure to climate change. ... Very few companies ... are incorporating their full climate change risk exposure into their strategic thinking and it could have a significant impact. ..What is critical is that companies need to fully understand the risk and opportunities associated with this complex area, and develop robust plans to address them. There will be large creation and distribution of shareholder value in the transition to a low carbon economy - there will be winners and losers .... The winners are more likely to be those businesses that take time to understand and address this complex area."

Tom Delay The Carbon Trust
