

2024 MSABC PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION FORUM:

Environmental, social and governance opportunities, risks and targets for the BC mining industry and the role of suppliers.

MSABC will host a discussion and audience Q&A session on environmental, social and governance (ESG) opportunities, risks and targets in the BC mining industry as well as the role that mining suppliers, contractors and consultants can play to support operators in meeting ESG goals.

The Forum will begin with a presentation from Michael Goehring, President & CEO of the Mining Association of BC (MABC), on the state of the BC mining industry and the advocacy priorities being advanced by MABC with the new provincial government.

Hugh Kendrick, Chief Sustainability Officer at Conuma Resources and Sheila Risbud, Vice President, Sustainable Development at Elk Valley Resources will present on their respective companies' ESG priorities and on how suppliers can support efforts to achieve ESG objectives. Conuma Resources operates three surface mines near Tumbler Ridge BC, producing steelmaking coal. Elk Valley Resources, a Glencore company, operates four steelmaking coal operations in the Elk Valley of BC.

Following presentations from Hugh Kendrick and Sheila Risbud, Sharon Singh from McMillan LLP will moderate a Q&A session with audience participation.
