

commercial real estate

overview

Real estate transactions can be highly complex. An interdependent web of developers, buyers, sellers, tenants and lenders are often involved. The potential for financial rewards is tempered by the potential for risk. Fortunately, a well-considered legal strategy can help protect the value of commercial real estate ventures.

McMillan's Commercial Real Estate Group has the depth of resources and experienced legal talent you need to assist with any transaction, regardless of its size or complexity. We deliver the kind of unparalleled expertise you need to execute complex real estate transactions effectively and efficiently. We serve a full range of organizations including financial institutions, investors, commercial and retail tenants, developers, property owners and managers.

With representation across Canada and expertise that extends to global transactions, we ensure our service is tailored to each client's needs, providing advice that is practical, effective, reliable and results-oriented. We also bring our full resources to bear on any given transaction, putting together multidisciplinary teams from different practice areas to deliver a complete solution that delivers maximum value.
