overview

McMillan's Tax Group is one of the leading sources of Canadian tax advice for companies in a broad range of industries, including those in the financial, automotive, pharmaceutical, private equity, and natural resource sectors.

Our Tax Group ranks among the best in Canada and include lawyers who, individually and collectively, have been recognized as leading advisers by The International Tax Review, The Martindale-Hubbell Legal Directory, The Legal 500 and The Canadian Legal LEXPERT Directory.

Our service approach is guided by our keen focus on understanding our clients' business objectives and providing practical advice that instills confidence and reduces risk. Our tax team includes members with expertise in substantive tax law, tax administration, court procedure, and tax policy.

We provide comprehensive and pragmatic Canadian tax advice on a wide variety of matters, including corporate reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, structured financing and derivative products, leasing arrangements, transfer pricing, and cross-border transactions.

We also advise clients at every stage of the tax dispute resolution process, from audits through to administrative appeals and court challenges, and we regularly enjoy great success in resolving tax disputes with Canada's federal and provincial revenue authorities. Our tax litigators are tireless advocates as well as highly experienced practitioners with broad litigation experience gained from appearing before all levels of Canadian courts.
