

Gordana Ivanovic

Calgary

403.531.8740

gordana.ivanovic@mcmillan.ca

education and year of call

- Called to the Alberta bar - 2006
- University of Alberta, LL.B. - 2004
- University of Winnipeg, B. Sc. (Chemistry) and B. A. (Sociology) - 1999

practice areas

arbitration
business litigation construction litigation dispute resolution employment litigation
insurance
leasing litigation
negotiated transactions product liability

industries

construction
insurance
natural resources manufacturing, distribution and retail profile

Gordana is a member of the firm's Advocacy and Employment Group practicing in the area of Litigation. Prior to joining McMillan, Gordana spent many years practicing litigation in a civil litigation boutique firm where she gained extensive knowledge and experience litigating in the areas of Corporate and Commercial Law, Contracts, Employment and Labour Disputes, Natural Resources, Leasing, Real Estate, and Insurance. Gordana routinely assists employers with employment matters involving wrongful dismissal, employment contracts, terminations and employment standards. Gordana has prepared documents for all levels of Court in Alberta and appears regularly at the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta. Gordana is routinely involved in all aspects of the litigation process, including alternate dispute resolutions and has appeared as both co-counsel as well as lead counsel in various trials.

directorships and professional associations

- Canadian Association of Counsel to Employers
- Canadian Bar Association
- Canadian Bar Association Civil Litigation Subsection – Executive Member and Treasurer

publications

March 2020

COVID-19: Alberta Government Announces List of Essential Services
Business Law Bulletin

Gordana Ivanovic
t: 403.531.8740
gordana.ivanovic@mcmillan.ca

February 2020

The "Fix" Is In: Alberta Employee Awarded 34.5 Months' Damages for Breach of Contract
Employment and Labour Bulletin

January 29, 2020

Stop the Spread: What Employers Need to Know About Coronavirus in the Workplace
Employment and Labour Bulletin

October 2019

When is Mediation Mandatory? A Comparative Analysis of Mandatory Mediation Across Canada
Litigation Bulletin

December 2018

Weighing Your Options? Reasonable Notice Means Weighing Your Evidence, Count Summary Judgment Out
Employment and Labour Bulletin

October 2018

Can we Implement Random Cannabis Drug Testing?
Employment and Labour Bulletin

June 2018

Supreme Court Refuses to Hear Random Drug & Alcohol Testing Appeal
Employment & Labour Bulletin

February 2018

Alberta Court of Appeal confirms ambiguous termination provisions should be interpreted in favour of employees
Employment Law Bulletin

February 2018

Taking Stock of Alberta's New Employment Standards
Employment & Labour Bulletin

January 2018

Alberta Bill 30: Changes to the Occupational Health and Safety Act on the Horizon
Employment and Labour Bulletin

November 2017

Alberta Decision a Win for Random Drug & Alcohol Testing (For Now)
Employment & Labour Bulletin

August 2017

In Case You Missed It: Significant Changes to Alberta's Workplace Laws Are Coming
Litigation Bulletin