profile

Daniel is an associate in the firm's Advocacy & Employment and Financial Services groups in the Vancouver office. His practice encompasses a broad range of civil litigation matters, with a focus on commercial disputes, debt collection, creditors' remedies, foreign judgment enforcement, Mareva injunctions, mortgage enforcement, real estate and construction disputes including builders lien and defect claims. He also has experience assisting debtors, creditors, trustees and court-appointed monitors in insolvency proceedings.

Daniel is an experienced litigator who has appeared at all levels of courts in British Columbia, including as trial counsel in the Supreme Court and Provincial Court. He regularly appears in the Supreme Court Chambers on contested and uncontested matters, including foreclosure hearings, summary trials and procedural matters related to civil claims.

Daniel is a frequent contributor to publications on civil litigation and insolvency matters, including the collections chapter of the Annual Review of Law & Practice.
