profile

Gabrielle Lachance Touchette is an associate in the Litigation group at the Montréal office.

Gabrielle represents clients from various industries, including aviation, real estate, construction and financing. She is involved in numerous complex matters such as national class actions.

Prior to joining McMillan in 2018, Gabrielle practiced for a boutique firm specializing in professional liability, as well as for a national firm. She has also appeared before all general courts in Québec, including the Superior Court and the Court of Appeal of Québec.

During her law studies at the Université de Sherbrooke, Gabrielle assisted a Superior Court judge and took part in the prestigious Pierre-Basile-Mignault pleading competition.

Gabrielle's dedication to better serving her clients led her to obtain an MBA degree. During this program, she was selected to participate in an international campus in Mumbai and Dubai.
