profile

Ève Lalancette joined McMillan's Real Estate Group in October 2018. She supports her clients by assisting them with their real estate financing, leasing, sales and acquisitions projects. Her clients benefit of her strong sense of analysis, organizational skills and her determination to pursue efficient and innovative solutions.

After obtaining her law degree and being admitted to the Quebec bar, she completed an internship at the Ministère de la Sécurité publique. She then joined the legal team of a large retail cooperative and gained experience with the Real Estate practice of a national law firm.
