

Thelma Zindoga

Vancouver

604.893.2326

thelma.zindoga@mcmillan.ca

education and year of call

- Called to the British Columbia bar - 2018
- University of Capetown, LL.B. - 2006

practice areas

business litigation

class actions

commercial real estate

competition and antitrust

competition policy advocacy employment law

employment litigation

litigation

profile

Thelma is an associate in our Advocacy & Employment Group. Her practice focuses on commercial and civil litigation, generally.

Before joining McMillan, Thelma practiced at another national law firm. Her experience includes class action defence of claims founded in competition law, real estate litigation of claims and disputes arising from purchase and sale contracts, and economic torts. She is also proficient in e-discovery and document production matters.

Thelma obtained her law degree from the University of Cape Town in South Africa, and after moving to Canada, received her Certificate of Qualification from the National Committee on Accreditation—Federation of Law Societies in Canada.

Thelma is also an alumni member of the United Nations Association—Canada International Development and Diplomacy Internship Programme (UNAC IDDIP). She has represented Canada as one of UNAC IDDIP's Junior Professional Consultants, and was posted to the United Nations Office of Drugs and Crime in South Africa, where she conducted policy, legal, and investigative research.

directorships and professional associations

- Canadian Bar Association
- Vancouver Bar Association
- Canadian Black Lawyers Association
- Global Lawyers of Canada

publications

Thelma Zindoga
t: 604.893.2326
thelma.zindoga@mcmillan.ca

March 27, 2020

COVID-19: New Emergency Rules for Operating Businesses in BC: How to Comply with BC's "Essential Business" and Public Health Orders
Regulatory, Business Law, and Litigation Bulletin