November 19, 2019

8:00 am - 10:30 am

Toronto

Join us for two consecutive panel discussions on short selling in Canada. Industry experts will share valuable insights into regulatory and market issues, concerns and trends.

Agenda:

8:00 am | Registration and Networking Breakfast

8:30 am | Welcome Address and "Shorting" Paper Remarks

8:45 am | Panel Discussion 1

Breaking it Down:

Current Regulatory Issues

Topics:

- Why are long trades regulated differently than short trades?
- Should our regulations be enhanced to be closer to those of other regulated markets?
- Do the costs of change outweigh the perceived benefits?
- Do existing regulations encourage short campaigns?
- Is "naked" short selling a systemic problem in Canada?

9:40 am | Panel Discussion 2

Short Campaigns:

the Good, the Bad and the Ugly

Topics:

- How are short campaigns organized
- How prevalent are "bear raids"?

- Can short campaigns be beneficial to the capital markets?
- How to prepare for, and defend against, short campaigns?
- A review of well-known short campaigns
