

"DISGUISED EXPROPRIATION" ISSUES IN AN ERA OF LARGE INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS

Posted on March 22, 2019

Categories: Insights, Events

March 22, 2019

7:45 am (ET) - 9:15 am

Montréal, Québec

Venue

McMillan Montréal Office

1000, Sherbrooke Street West, 27th floor

Montréal, QC H3A 3G4

As large public infrastructure and park projects multiply, developers, landowners and business owners are increasingly likely to face government authorities seeking to obtain some or all of their land.

Using examples from their current files, Mr. Collins and Mr. Pascu will present several cases which can be tied to the concept of "disguised expropriation". Participants will benefit from the advice of the panelists on the steps to be taken when facing public authorities and the compensation they can expect.

Agenda

7:45 am | Registration and Breakfast

8:00 am - 9:00 am | Panel Discussion

9:00 am | Q & A

9:15 am | Event closing and networking

**This seminar is recognized as CLE by the Quebec Bar.*

Panellists

Michel Collins

Urban Planner, BC2

Andrei Pascu

mcmillan

Associate, McMillan

Moderator

Hannah Alibay

Urban Planning Master's Candidate

Member of the Sainte-Catherine Ouest Project for the City of Montreal