

MCMILLAN'S EMPLOYMENT LAW BREAKFAST SERIES

Posted on May 7, 2021

Categories: Insights, Events, Webinars

McMillan's Vancouver Labour and Employment Group is proud to continue its Breakfast Series covering key employment and human rights issues! So grab your morning coffee and join Dianne Rideout and Michelle McKinnon for Parts Five and Six on a workplace law refresher!

The Breakfast Series has covered key workplace law issues which include employment contracts, human rights and mental health in the workplace, vaccinations and global remote working. The Breakfast Series will benefit anyone involved in human resources and workplace law.

Each program is eligible for 1 hour Substantive CPD in BC and pre-approved for 1 CPD hour by CPHR BC & Yukon.

Please note our Part 4: Current issues relating to vaccinations in British Columbia was covered in our national Employment and Labour seminar.*

Program Details

Tuesday, October 26, 2021 | 10:00 am - 11:15 am (PDT) RSVP

Part 5: Termination Terminating an employee is never a pleasant experience, but sometimes it cannot be avoided. In this seminar, we will discuss both with and without cause terminations, as well as the steps an employer should take to protect itself from future liability.

Thursday, November 18, 2021 | 10:00 am - 11:15 am (PDT) RSVP

Part 6: Employment Standards Provincially regulated employers must comply with the minimum employment standards set by the British Columbia Employment Standards Act. In this seminar, we will discuss the most important minimum standards and how they apply to your business and employees.

Access: Log-in details will be e-mailed once you RSVP that you are attending.
