McMillan is pleased to congratulate the exceptional David Kent for being named on the 2022 Benchmark Litigation Canada: Top 50 Trial Lawyers List.

The Top 50 Trial Lawyers in Canada is an elite ranking identified by Benchmark Litigation researchers. This list aims at capturing the best of the best in trial law, covering the various capacities of litigation and the entire geography of Canada.

David Kent is a senior partner in the firm's Toronto office. David's practice emphasizes complex litigation involving competition, antitrust & foreign investment, intellectual property ("IP"), commercial, regulatory, securities and governance disputes in a wide variety of industries. He has extensive experience in international, cross-border and domestic cartels, conspiracies and class actions. David has been defence counsel in some of the largest Canadian criminal cartel prosecutions. His class action experience arises from over 60 Canadian cases and includes precedent-setting decisions on a wide range of issues. David has also advised on and litigated copyright issues for domestic and international broadcasters, cable networks and online streaming services and social media sites for over 35 years.

Widely recognized, David has been described by clients interviewed by Benchmark as someone who commands unanimous acclaim for his antitrust and competition acumen from peers throughout Canada and abroad. "David has been involved in every single competition class action in Canada," testifies a peer. "No one is smarter and no one is better versed than him in the competition area."
