McMillan is proud to congratulate the exceptional David Kent for winning ‘Top Competition Litigator of the Year’ and ‘Top Trial Lawyer’ 2021.

David Kent is a senior partner in the firm's Corporate Commercial Litigation, Competition, Antitrust & Foreign Investment and Intellectual Property Groups. He has extensive expertise in international, cross-border and domestic cartels, conspiracies and class actions. David has been defence counsel in some of the largest and most complex Canadian criminal cartel prosecutions and in a wide variety of civil cartel cases in industries including vitamins, linerboard, copper futures, computer components (including DRAM, SRAM, Flash and LCD and CRT monitors), e-books, credit cards, SSA bonds and auto parts. His class action career encompasses over 60 Canadian cases and includes precedent-setting decisions on a wide range of issues including conspiracy, securities law, cartel jurisdiction, cross-border discovery and class action certification and settlement.

Widely recognized, David has been described by clients interviewed by Benchmark as someone who commands unanimous acclaim for his antitrust and competition acumen from peers throughout Canada and abroad. “David has been involved in every single competition class action in Canada,” testifies a peer. “No one is smarter and no one is better versed than him in the competition area.”

The lawyers in McMillan’s Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice successfully represent Canadian and international clients facing virtually any type of business dispute in almost any forum.
