We are pleased to announce that Vicki Tickle will be joining the firm's Financial Services group in the insolvency and restructuring practice area, effective July 4, 2017.

Vicki joins as a partner and will service our clients from the Vancouver office.

"Vicki is a talented and highly respected restructuring and insolvency practitioner who brings excellence to the courtroom as well as the boardroom. She is a super fit with the rest of our dynamic national restructuring team working out of offices in Vancouver, Calgary, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. I am very excited about all that Vicki will bring to us and our clients" says Wael Rostom, Co-Chair, Restructuring and Insolvency.

Prior to joining McMillan, through her commercial litigation practice, Vicki advised on complex commercial insolvencies, corporate restructuring and creditor realization. Vicki has experience in the fields of forestry, mining, manufacturing and technology, real estate and entertainment.

"We are very happy to have Vicki join our group. She brings a considerable amount of experience in all types of insolvency and restructuring matters in the local market as well as nationally. I look forward to working with Vicki. Her addition is sure to enhance our position in the restructuring market in British Columbia", says Peter Reardon, Co-Chair, B.C., Restructuring and Insolvency.

Vicki was called to the bar in Queensland, Australia and subsequently, England and Wales after studying law at the University of Queensland where she also obtained a Bachelor of Arts. Vicki was called to the British Columbia Bar in 2008.

We look forward to the many benefits Vicki will share with our clients. Connect with Vicki at
