McMillan is pleased to announce that Calgary Business Law and M&A partner Greg McIlwain has been selected as a leading lawyer in Canada under the age of 40 in Lexpert's Rising Stars 2016 competition.

Greg accepted his award at the November 17 gala and awards presentation and will be featured, along with a full list of winners, in the November/December issue of Lexpert magazine.

"We congratulate Greg on this significant achievement. Greg's broad range of experience, oil & gas industry expertise, and his focus on professional excellence and client service makes him an ideal recipient for this award," says John Clifford, National Group Coordinator, Business Law. "Greg is a valued member of our team, a strong leader in our Calgary office, and we are delighted that he has been recognized by his peers for this award."

Greg's practice focuses on complex transactions including international and domestic mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, reorganizations, joint ventures and tax structuring strategies. He has significant expertise in the oil and gas industry, particularly midstream, downstream, petrochemical and services. Greg also has expertise in diversified industries, including food and beverage, insurance and transportation.

Greg is passionate about helping clients overcome complex legal challenges in order to achieve their objectives. He prides himself on taking the time to understand his clients' businesses and needs and on working tirelessly in order to provide practical legal solutions tailored to their individual situations.

The Lexpert Rising Stars: Leading Lawyers Under 40 award recognizes lawyers from law firms and in-house counsel who are leading lawyers in the Canadian legal community. Finalists are nominated by their peers on criteria such as leadership, professional achievements, business acumen, adaptability, teamwork and interpersonal skills.
