The GO Rail Expansion – On Corridor Project was awarded Lexpert’s Infrastructure & Projects Deal of the Year Award at the Canadian Law Awards. McMillan, who represented Deutsche Bahn International Operations GmbH and Aecon Group Inc. on this landmark project, is thrilled to accept this award and to extend our congratulations to our clients, their partners and the other law firms who worked on this project.

The recognition of our transaction and legal advisory work as part of this award speaks to McMillan’s highly regarded expertise and capabilities in large-scale infrastructure projects. It also applauds our lawyers’ ability to deploy real-time business solutions to help our clients stay ahead in their markets and successfully realize their strategic imperatives.

Infrastructure Deal of the Year: GO Rail Expansion – On Corridor Project – McMillan acted as counsel to the O/M Services Provider, ultimately controlled and owned by Deutsche Bahn International Operations GmbH and Aecon Group Inc. The project represents the largest and most ambitious infrastructure project undertaken by the Government of Ontario and includes the design, build, integration, maintenance, rehabilitation and renewal of the railway corridor and the provision of rolling stock.

Congratulations to: Julie Han, Ahsan Mirza, Brent Thomas, Christina Kim, Dave McKechnie, Paul Boshyk, Andrew Stirling, Adriana Rudensky, Adam Chisholm and Victor Kim, McMillan’s multidisciplinary and talented team of lawyers on this file.

The Canadian Law Awards celebrate the nation’s legal profession by highlighting the most outstanding deals, cases, individuals and firms. The Top Deals list is based on a canvas of significant transactional work from the previous year. The list reflects the viewpoints of the Canadian Law Awards team on deals that are considered to be the most notable of the year. The awards were announced at an in-person gala on May 11, 2023 in Toronto.
