McMillan is pleased to announce that the 2023 edition of Best Lawyers in Canada names 80 lawyers as 'Leaders' and 10 as 'Ones to Watch' in their respective fields. This recognition by industry peers covers an expansive 35 practice areas, demonstrating the Firm's diversity of expertise and strength as a leading full-service business law firm.

François Tougas has also earned the distinction of best Competition / Antitrust Lawyer in the city, as he was awarded the title of as Vancouver's Competition / Antitrust Lawyer of the Year. François is a Partner in McMillan's Vancouver office, with a practice devoted to Competition, Antitrust & Foreign Investment and Transport law and policy. His competition / antitrust practice includes merger notification and compliance, acting as advisory counsel in competition and foreign investment regulation, and making representations before the Competition Bureau (Canada).

"François' recognition as Competition / Antitrust Lawyer of the Year is a strong reflection of his commitment to law and policy", said Cory Kent, Office Management Partner, Vancouver. "Having practiced competition law for over 30 years, François has in-depth domestic and international experience including making representations before the Competition Bureau (Canada) and advising his clients on regulatory and transactional matters. He is also an Adjunct Professor of Competition Law and Policy at University of British Columbia. He is extremely knowledgeable, making him a tremendous lawyer to his clients, colleagues and students. I join Firm members in all of our offices in congratulation François on this wonderful recognition."

Congratulations to:
