

MCMILLAN COMPETITION AND ANTITRUST LAWYERS ACCEPT LEADERSHIP ROLES WITH THE ABA

Posted on May 14, 2019

Category: News

McMillan LLP is pleased to congratulate five of our lawyers on their appointments to leadership roles in the American Bar Association's Section of Antitrust Law (SAL) for the 2019–2020 year.

Reflecting the status of the Firm's Competition and Antitrust Group as elite among Canadian practices, and in recognition of our longstanding strength in cross-border commerce, the following McMillan lawyers have been chosen to hold leadership positions:

- Dr. A. Neil Campbell, Member, Future of Competition Law Standards Task Force
- Joshua Chad, Vice Chair, International Committee
- Casey W. Halladay, Vice Chair, International Cartel Workshop and Member, Special Operations Team
- James B. Musgrove, Member, Competition/Consumer Protection Policy and North American Comments Task Force
- Guy Pinsonnault, Member, Long Range Planning Committee

These appointments continue the Firm's tradition of service in the American Bar Association and the SAL in particular. We are proud to field one of the largest numbers of SAL leadership appointees of any law firm outside of the United States.

For more than three decades, McMillan has been recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in competition law. Our cross-Canada team of lawyers in Toronto, Ottawa, Montréal, Vancouver and Calgary routinely assists clients in obtaining approvals of transformative transactions, and in defending cartel, class action and unilateral conduct matters before competition authorities and the courts.

Learn more about our award-winning competition practice here.