McMillan LLP is pleased to announce the promotion of eleven lawyers from across the firm to partner and the admission of 7 lawyers to the firm's equity partnership.

These lawyers embody the firm's commitment to diversity in leadership, excellence in client service and innovation in the delivery of effective solutions to our clients across a variety of industries. The addition of these lawyers to our partner ranks ensures a broad range of legal expertise and business knowledge as well as the firm's ongoing commitments and contributions to our clients and communities.

"I am extremely proud of the depth of talent represented by this group," said Teresa Dufort, CEO and Managing Partner of McMillan LLP. "They exemplify the values, the leadership and the commitment to excellence that are critical to the firm's strategic growth and our ability to contribute to the success of our clients."
