McMillan LLP is pleased to announce that Ravipal S. Bains has been appointed to the Board of Governors of the Business Council of British Columbia (BCBC). He will serve a three-year term.

Ravipal will bring his capital markets and environmental social and governance (ESG) expertise to the Business Council as it continues to focus on the province's and Canada's economic recovery from COVID-19.

A leader of McMillan's ESG Initiative, Ravipal regularly advises large BC-based enterprises on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and matters affecting corporate strategy. He is active in public and civic affairs and is a David Rockefeller Fellow with The Trilateral Commission, a Carnegie New Leader with the Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs, and a member of the Board of Directors of South Asian Bar Association of British Columbia.

The BCBC is a non-partisan business organization made up of 250 leading and largest companies, post-secondary institutions and industry organizations from across British Columbia. The council provides public-policy research and advocacy on issues that enhance BC's competitiveness and prosperity.
