Category: News

Seventeen McMillan lawyers are among Canada's leading litigation lawyers in 2023 as per Lexpert Special Edition on Canada's Leading Litigation Lawyers. This biggest showing speaks to our ability of providing pragmatic, sophisticated and responsive advice to help our clients stay ahead.

McMillan's litigators have extensive experience in domestic, cross-border, and international litigation, arbitration and mediation. When the stakes are at the highest, we work tenaciously to pursue our clients' commercial interests before all levels of courts, regulators, commissions, administrative tribunals and arbitral panels. Combining skills and expertise, we successfully represent Canadian and international clients facing virtually any type of business disputes by leveraging the best litigating talent from across the country through our One Office national platform.
