Sidney Elbaz is one out of only six lawyers to be recognized globally as a 2024 Lexology Client Choice Award winner for Product Liability Defence. A partner in McMillan's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Group practising from our Montréal office, Sidney is recognized by clients as a skilled litigator who advocates tirelessly for their commercial interests in and out of the courtroom. He works closely with in-house counsels, providing them with real-time business solutions to help them stay ahead.

The Lexology Client choice award recipients are only nominated by corporate counsel. The award is meant to acknowledge lawyers who add real value to clients' businesses above and beyond the other players in the market.

This is not Sidney's first recognition. Since 2019, he is constantly recognized by leading industry guides such as Benchmark Litigation Canada, Best Lawyers in Canada and Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory.

An avid and inclusive practitioner involved in giving back to the communities he is a part of, Sidney acts as a mentor for other lawyers at the firm. He also volunteers his time with organizations that provide services aimed at assisting adults and children who have developmental disabilities or autism with integrating into their community. Additionally, he has won the McMillan's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) award for allyship.

McMillan's Prior Winners

McMillan's lawyers have a track record of being recognized for exceptional client service, including by Lexology. In 2022, Lindsay Lorimer won the Lexology Client Choice Award for Product Liability and Andrae Marrocco in 2021 for Franchising.
