McMillan is proud to congratulate three of the firm's lawyers who have been recognized for their exceptional expertise in the 2021 Lexpert Special Edition on Canada's Leading Energy Lawyers:

- Robin Junger, Vancouver
- Timothy Murphy, Toronto
- Mike Richmond, Toronto

Our lawyers were selected based on their reputation as leaders in the energy sector as well as their high rankings in the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory.

The 2021 Lexpert Special Edition on Energy will be distributed with the September 30th, 2021 edition of The Globe and Mail. Sector-specific, the publication focuses on developments, trends and legal issues relating to Energy and associated industries, such as oil & gas, electricity & renewables, environment and Indigenous consultation.

McMillan's Energy Industry Group has deep experience across the entire energy sector, both in Canada and internationally. We provide strategic assistance and tactical legal solutions to clients across the entire Energy value chain, including senior, intermediate and junior oil and gas companies, utilities, renewable power generators, alternative energy developers, and financial institutions. We leverage local expertise and international relationships to help clients respond to today's complex economic and regulatory climate. Our leading team of professionals offer longstanding experience and knowledge of where the industry has been and where it's going. With extensive transactional and regulatory energy experience, the firm's Energy lawyers advise clients across the entire industry and at every stage of the project lifecycle.
