Categories: People, Law Students

Aki Kamoshida was a summer student at McMillan and is returning as an articling student.

Aki recently completed her Juris Doctor at the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia. Aki held numerous elected positions at the UBC Law Students' Society, was a member of the Board of Directors at the Alma Mater Society and participated in the UBC Business Law Clinic.

Aki received several awards during law school, including the Frank Iacobacci Entrance Award in Law, the Mr. Justice Walter Kirke Smith Memorial Scholarship, and the Alexander Holburn Beaudin + Lang Ernie Alexander Award in Law.

Before law school, Aki obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Global Political Economy from Waseda University in Tokyo and interned for the Japan Alliance for LGBT Legislation, where she was involved in lobbying efforts for legal reform.
