

CHARLES ELUROMMA

Categories: People, Lawyers

Charles Eluomma is building on a dynamic business law practice focused primarily on mergers and acquisitions, with a secondary emphasis on restructuring and insolvency law. Charles advises clients in a range of industries, including energy, and the information technology sector. He also provides general business law advice relating to the purchase and sale of businesses.

With significant experience in mergers and acquisitions, Charles provides expert guidance on the preparation of reorganization plans. He also drafts and reviews agreements.

In connection with restructuring and insolvency matters, Charles advises creditors and debtors on bad debt, and performs securities reviews for banks.

He advises clients on general immigration matters, including, Labour Market Impact Assessments, Intra-company Transfers, CUSMA, CPTPP and GATS professional work permit applications, Working Holiday and Young Professionals work permit applications, Temporary Residence applications, as well as Permanent Residence applications for economic class immigration and Provincial Nominees.

Prior to joining McMillan, Charles was a member of the banking and financial services group at another leading Canadian law firm. He also practised business law at two prominent firms in Nigeria's commercial centre of Lagos. Over this time, he advised banks and other financial institutions, as well as energy companies seeking to raise capital. Charles assisted with banking and finance transactions, in addition to general corporate commercial matters. He also provided corporate secretarial services to companies operating across a number of industries.
