

DANIEL G. EDMONDSTONE

Categories: People, Lawyers

Daniel (Dan) Edmondstone's practice focuses on matters involving competition law (including marketing and advertising issues), antitrust and foreign investment, and product regulation. He advises on consumer law matters including privacy issues and CASL compliance and contentious matters of misleading advertising. Dan is consistently recognized for his work in advertising and marketing law, and competition law by various legal directories, and is a leader of the firm's Marketing & Advertising Group.

Representing clients before the Competition Tribunal on matters under the Competition Act, Dan is also active in general commercial litigation, and appears regularly before advertising dispute panels of Advertising Standards Canada. Serving clients in a range of industries, he has gained particular industry insight in the automotive sector. Dan regularly advises with respect to consumer law compliance issues for a wide range of clients in consumer-facing industries.

Dan's transactional work includes advising target companies and buyers on a variety of acquisitions, including in the mining, pharmaceutical and insurance sectors.
