

DONIA HASHEM

Categories: People, Lawyers

Donia Hashem is building a broad legal practice in civil and commercial litigation. She works on a variety of files relating to complex contractual disputes, class action defence, product liability, and regulatory compliance.

During her legal studies, Donia was selected as the Dean's Fellow for Property Law, and received the Samuel Rubinoff Award for research and writing. Prior to law school, Donia worked at the Ontario Government's Cabinet Office as well as at a prominent NGO in the MENA region.

Email: donia.hashem@mcmillan.ca

Expertise: Class Actions, Construction & Infrastructure, Corporate Commercial Litigation, Product Liability & Regulation, White Collar Defence, Fraud & Investigations

Language Spoken: English, Arabic

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/donia-hashem-0b8bb023/>

Location: Toronto

Phone: 416.865.7036

Position/Title: Associate, Litigation & Dispute Resolution

Community Involvement:

- Pro Bono Ontario
- Pro Bono Students Canada
- Special Olympics Ontario

Publications:

- "Unscrambling the egg: New guidance for assessing concurrent delay on construction projects",

Construction Law Letter, Vol.38, No2, p. 12-14 (November/December 2021)

Education & Admissions:

Degree: Called to the Ontario bar

Year: 2020

Degree: JD

University: Osgoode Hall Law School

Year: 2019

Degree: Master of Public Policy

University: University of Toronto

Year: 2016

Degree: Bachelor of Science in Foreign Service

University: Georgetown University

Year: 2012

Media Mentions:

- "Legal Notes: Ontario Supreme Court ruling may reduce concurrent delay finger-pointing," by John Bleasby, Daily Commercial News, April 15, 2021

Rankings & Recognition:

- Samuel Rubinoff Award for Most Outstanding Research Paper

Practices: Class Actions, Competition, Antitrust & Foreign Investment, Corporate Commercial Litigation, Product Liability & Regulation, White Collar Defence, Fraud & Investigations