

GORDANA IVANOVIC

Categories: People, Lawyers

Gordana Ivanovic is a skilled employment and labour litigation lawyer with extensive experience acting for clients in the manufacturing and energy sectors.

Involved in all aspects of litigation, including alternate dispute resolution, Gordana has acted as co-counsel or lead counsel in various trials. She routinely assists employers with matters involving wrongful dismissal, employment contracts, terminations and employment standards. Gordana prepares documents for all levels of court in Alberta and appears regularly before the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta.

Prior to joining McMillan, Gordana spent many years at a civil litigation firm where she gained extensive experience litigating in the areas of corporate and commercial law, contracts, employment and labour disputes, natural resources, oil and gas, leasing, real estate and insurance.

Email: gordana.ivanovic@mcmillan.ca

Expertise: Employment & Labour Relations, Energy, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Manufacturing, Product Liability & Regulation

Location: Calgary

Phone: 403.531.8740

Position/Title: Counsel, Employment & Labour Relations

Directorships & Affiliations:

- Canadian Association of Counsel to Employers
- Canadian Bar Association
- Canadian Bar Association Civil Litigation Subsection – Chair

Education & Admissions:

Degree: Called to the Alberta bar

Year: 2006

Degree: LLB

University: University of Alberta

Year: 2004

Degree: B.Sc. (Chemistry) and BA (Sociology)

University: University of Winnipeg

Year: 1999

Media Mentions:

- Alberta revamps rules around layoffs, holiday pay. Article by John Dujay, Canadian HR Reporter, October 21, 2020.

Industries: Energy, Manufacturing

Practices: Employment & Labour Relations, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Product Liability & Regulation