

GREG MCILWAIN*

Categories: People, Lawyers

Greg McIlwain is a gifted business lawyer, with a focus on complex transactions including international and domestic mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations and joint ventures. He also advises on tax structuring strategies.

In addition to his significant expertise in the oil and gas industry, particularly midstream, downstream, petrochemical and services, Greg draws on a broad range of industry knowledge, including in the technology, insurance and manufacturing sectors.

Recognized in the 2021 Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory in the area of Corporate Mid-Market, Greg was previously identified as a leading lawyer in Canada under the age of 40 in Lexpert's Rising Stars competition in 2016.

Greg is a director of the Calgary chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth, part of a global community of middle-market M&A deal-makers and business leaders, focused on driving growth. He is also a past chair of the board of the Canadian Association of Pediatric Oncology Camps (CAPOC), a national collaboration of camps for children affected by childhood cancer.
