

KAILEIGH DUNN

Categories: People, Law Students

Kaileigh Dunn is an articling student at McMillan.

During her legal studies, Kaileigh was actively involved with the Osgoode Women's Network, serving as Secretary and an upper year mentor. She also volunteered with high school students through Law in Action Within Schools (LAWS) and completed a Pro Bono Students Canada placement with Legal Line as a legal research and writing volunteer. Kaileigh was the recipient of the 2022 Bereskin & Parr Prize in Trade Mark Law.

Kaileigh holds a JD from Osgoode Hall Law School and a bachelor of arts in applied economics with a certificate in business from Queen's University. She worked at McMillan as a summer student before returning to the firm as an articling student.

mcmillan

Email: kaileigh.dunn@mcmillan.ca

Location: Toronto

Phone: 647.943.9171

Position/Title: Articling Student