Categories: People, Lawyers

Madeline Klimek is an Associate with the Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice at McMillan. She previously completed her articling term at the firm.

Madeline brings considerable experience in international affairs, having completed two Master's degrees in international history. An active volunteer and leader, she helped establish the McMillan LLP-Western Law Mentorship Program, a mentorship program that pairs McMillan lawyers with law students from BIPOC and racialized communities, and first-generation university students. Skilled in critical analysis and public speaking, she was involved in mooting competitions and served as a legal affairs intern at an internationally recognized not-for-profit organization in Ottawa.

Madeline holds a JD from the University of Western Ontario, as well as two Master's degrees in international history from Columbia University and The London School of Economics and Political Science.
