

MICHAEL HASSAR

Categories: People, Lawyers

Michael Hassar is building a broad legal practice in taxation. His practice focuses on domestic and international income tax planning as well as commodity tax matters.

Over his legal studies, Michael worked in the area of tax policy at the Ontario Ministry of Finance where he assisted legal counsel in making federal and provincial tax legislation recommendations to ensure tax base integrity. Michael was also very involved in his community at law school, contributing as co-president of the Business Law Society, director of business and development for the Faculty of Law Review, and as a mentor and an executive member of the Peer Mentorship Program.
