

NADYA GOORACHURN

Categories: People, Law Students

Nadya is an articling student at McMillan. She holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL. B.) from McGill University, where she benefited from a bijural training combining common law and civil law, which enabled her to acquire a global vision and understanding of the law. She also did an exchange abroad at the University of Edinburgh.

During her law studies, Nadya gained practical legal experience by volunteering at the Mobile Legal Clinic, a clinic dedicated to the homeless and marginalised.

Prior to articling at McMillan, she worked there as a summer student.
