

OUVEDI RAMA NAIKEN

Categories: People, Lawyers

Ouvedi Rama Naiken is building a broad practice in capital markets and mergers and acquisitions. She works on files relating to securities matters and general corporate transactions.

Working closely with senior lawyers, Ouvedi is involved in a variety of transactions including mergers and acquisitions, prospectus offerings, private placements, reverse takeovers, and securities regulatory matters.

During her legal studies, Ouvedi was a volunteer at the Legal Information Clinic at McGill where she provided bilingual legal information, referral and community services to members of the Montreal community.

Email: ouvedi.ramanaiken@mcmillan.ca

Expertise: Capital Markets & Securities, Mergers & Acquisitions

Language Spoken: English, French, Creole

Location: Toronto

Phone: 416.865.7042

Position/Title: Associate, Capital Markets & Securities

Community Involvement:

- Legal Information Clinic at McGill

Directorships & Affiliations:

- South Asian Bar Association (SABA)

Publications:

- Co-author of Morissette decision creates uncertainty for the subsection 184(3) short-cut method (TCC), Canadian Tax Journal

Education & Admissions:

Degree: Called to the Ontario bar

Year: 2021

Degree: Juris Doctor and Bachelor of Civil Law

University: McGill University, Faculty of Law

Year: 2019

Degree: Honours Bachelor's Degree in International Development and Globalization (French Immersion)

University: University of Ottawa

Year: 2016

Practices: Capital Markets & Securities, Mergers & Acquisitions