

QUYNH CHI NGUYEN

Categories: People, Law Students

Quynh Chi Nguyen is a summer student at McMillan.

She completed her LL.B. at Université de Montréal in 2025 and will return to the firm as an articling student in 2026. During her legal studies, Quynh Chi gained valuable experience at two other law firms. She also volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada and did a summer exchange at Aix-Marseille University. She is actively involved in student committees at her university where she co-founded the Asian Law Students' Association.

Prior to law school, she participated in piano competitions while enrolled in an intensive classical music program. She then continued her academic career by obtaining a Diploma of College Studies in commerce with distinction at Marianopolis College. Alongside her studies, she worked with individuals with intellectual disabilities and continues to teach piano to this day.
