Categories: People, Law Students

Rhythm Jethi was a summer student at McMillan and is returning as an articling student.

Rhythm recently completed her Juris Doctor at Thompson Rivers University, where she served as Vice-President of the Criminal Law Club, an executive for the Human Rights Club, and hosted a podcast for the Business Law Society focusing on emerging legal trends. Rhythm received the Tax Law and Real Estate Transactions Course Prizes, as well as the “Next 10 Years” scholarship from the Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers of British Columbia (FACL BC) in recognition of her academic achievements and active community engagement. Rhythm continues to volunteer with FACL BC’s Advocacy Committee which advocates for equality in the legal profession and raises awareness to ongoing legal issues.

Prior to law school, Rhythm obtained a Bachelor of Arts majoring in Political Science and minoring in Law and Society from the University of British Columbia (UBC). Rhythm worked with a federal political party, assisting
