

SARA TOUFIC

Categories: People, Law Students

Sara was a summer student at McMillan and is returning as an articling student.

Sara graduated from the Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia. Sara volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada on the Innocence Canada High School Outreach Project. As the Co-President of UBC Outlaws, Sara advocated for the needs of LGBTQ2IA+ students in the law school community and beyond. Sara served as a Workshop Coordinator for the Allard Law Women's Caucus, where she organized and facilitated workshops on issues affecting women in the legal profession. Sara also volunteered as a mentor for first-year law students from equity-deserving groups through the Allard Kaleidoscope Mentorship Program.

Sara holds a Bachelor of Arts in Criminology and a Certificate in Legal Studies from Simon Fraser University, graduating with distinction. Prior to law school, she worked as a legal administrative assistant at a cross-border personal injury firm.
