

SRINIDHI AKKUR

Categories: People, Law Students

Srinidhi Akkur is an articling student at McMillan.

During her legal studies, Srinidhi served as the Co-President of the South Asian Law Students' Association, a volunteer editor for the Canadian Journal of Commercial Arbitration and an academic tutor. She also volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada, serving as Project Lead on a project assisting homeless and marginally housed individuals in Kingston. She has experience working in technology sourcing and enterprise architecture.

Srinidhi holds a JD from the Faculty of Law at Queen's University, a bachelor of mathematics from the University of Waterloo and a bachelor of business administration from Wilfrid Laurier University. She worked at McMillan as a summer student prior to returning to the firm as an articling student.

Email: srinidhi.akkur@mcmillan.ca

Language Spoken: English, Tamil

Location: Toronto

Phone: 647.943.9161

Position/Title: Articling Student

Publications:

- "Don't trip on a poorly drafted step clause," Co-authored with Gemma Healy-Murphy and Connor Campbell, The Lawyers Dailey, This article was originally published by The Lawyer's Daily (www.lawyersdaily.ca), part of LexisNexis Canada Inc. (November 3, 2022)