Categories: People, Law Students

Sydney Dahrouge is thrilled to be joining McMillan as a summer law student. She looks forward to embracing the opportunities that come her way and is eager to learn from the firm's skilled lawyers. Sydney recently completed her second year at the University of Alberta Faculty of Law, where she achieved a Dean's List ranking. She also participated in Law Show to raise funds for a local charity.

Before law school, Sydney obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology (with distinction) from the University of British Columbia. During her undergraduate studies, she danced professionally and appeared as a background dancer on several popular TV shows. She also gained valuable experience working as an executive assistant, which sparked her interest in a legal career.

Outside of her professional pursuits, Sydney enjoys practicing yoga and spending time with her family and with her dog, Harper. She also enjoys going for long walks, baking tasty treats, and binge watching a good reality TV
