

ZACH LECHNER-SUNG

Categories: People, Lawyers

Zach Lechner-Sung is a lawyer at McMillan.

During his legal studies, Zach served as the Co-President of the Business Law Society, the VP Business Affairs of the Toronto JD/MBA Students' Association, and Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Business Law Blog.

Additionally, he volunteered as a Senior Editor for the Critical Analysis of Law Review, and co-founded the Cannabis Law Club.

Zach is the recipient of the Rotman Onboard Fellowship and Moffat/Wiseman Fellowship. During his undergraduate studies, he was awarded the Robotti & Company Value Investing Award, and joined the Ivey Value Fund's Advisory Board as a Fund Fellow. He has previous work experience in real estate investment as well as mortgage origination and securitization.

Zach holds a JD/MBA from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law and a bachelors degree in business administration from Western University's Ivey Business School.

Email: zach.lechner-sung@mcmillan.ca

Expertise: Capital Markets & Securities

Language Spoken: English

Location: Toronto

Phone: 647.943.9156

Position/Title: Associate, Capital Markets & Securities

Practices: Capital Markets & Securities