With the new Construction Act in place, practitioners need to know what is expected of them to ensure their files move along smoothly. The new regime with its updated rules require a careful examination. Join us as our stellar faculty distill the necessary information for you regarding prompt payment and adjudication so that you can advise your clients with ease and in turn, your clients can fully grasp the changes that will impact them moving forward. Our experienced industry practitioners will enhance your understanding of the new regime by explaining their experiences and how they are tackling key issues.
